ATVC's Coaching Expectations

Coaches are expected to...

- Anticipate issues and promptly address them including conflict between players, conflict with or between parents, playing time issues, scheduling conflicts, absences, etc.
- Help all players increase their skills, court awareness, and mental toughness to the best of your ability.
- Communicate with parents, players, and the club director effectively and in a timely manner about practices, meetings, tournaments, uniforms, etc.
- Communicate Tribe Announcements from the Club Director to parents and players.
- Create and maintain a GroupMe with at least one parent of each player. This is where you will communicate changes, announcements, etc.
- Help distribute uniforms, practice shirts, and other items to players and parents.
- Bring volleyballs, ball cart(s), and other necessary equipment to and from practices and tournaments. Lost and/or damaged equipment must be reimbursed within one week.

- Attend and show up on time for all practices, meetings, and tournaments. If a scheduling conflict occurs or you become ill, you are expected to notify the Club Director as soon as possible so other arrangements can be made.
- Ensure that all players, parents, and spectators are following ATVC policies and procedures including absences, communication, behavior, the 24-Hour Rule, etc.
- Represent Angelo Tribe Volleyball Club in a respectful manner, with integrity and benevolence, both on and off the court.

Coaches are NOT expected to...

- Handle Athlete Accounts.
- Collect Club Dues.
- Register or pay for tournaments.
- Handle payment for practice facilities.
